Christmas Lights

HW14.028 Christmas Motifs

One Voice Wales (OVW) mentioned 'grants' could be available for LED lighting. Clerk to make enquiries before instructions given to Phillips Electrics to start repair work on existing 'non-working' motifs.

HW14.029 Christmas Trees, Oystermouth Square and West Cross

Quotes to be obtained and also the possibility of needing new set of lights. Enquire from OVW, the possibility of a grant.

HW14.030 Traffic Management Task & Finish Group

Keep on agenda until Newton Road scheme has been 'tried and tested'.

HW14.031 Heathwood Road

'No through road' signs been requested and also parking restrictions introduced.

CCS agree regarding the 'no through road', but do not consider it a priority at the moment.

CCS requested background information regarding the parking issue.

RECOMMEND:- Site visit be arranged between MCC and CCS.

HW14.032 Rotherslade Road

Requested 'No through road' signs be erected.

Email received from CCS who have reviewed the current signage provision regarding 'no through road' sign incorporated into the two street name plates, and with the absence of any reported personal injury accidents, additional signage would not be considered necessary at this time. Budgetary controls have also been looked at.

HW14.033 MCC Cleaner

Further to previous emails, a follow-up was sent 23 February 2014. Awaiting a reply.

HW14.034 Pedestrian Crossing - Llwynderw

Second request received for a path between the new pedestrian crossing and the promenade at Llwynderw.

It was agreed to allow Cllr. Linda Tyler-Lloyd (as CCS) to deal at present.

HW14.035 Correspondence

Email received from PC Richard Jeavons, SouthWales Police, regarding illegal and inconsiderate parking on Fairwood Road junction with Linden Avenue, West Cross, (opposite Mayals School).

Decided the 2 West Cross County Councillors, Cllrs. Des Thomas and Mark Child be made aware of the situation. Email to be forwarded to both councillors for their attention.

HW14.036 Date of Next Meeting – THURSDAY, 27 MARCH 2014 @ 7.30pm

Please note revised date for this meeting. Thank you.
